FUTUREPROOF YOUR BUSINESS WITH INTELLIGENT PRINTING

Today's intelligent devices do more than just print. With advanced capabilities that include smart automation, enhanced scanning, data and document capture, storage, and seamless sharing, intelligent printing can:

- Drive business intelligence
- Create paperless workflows
- Improve customer service to deliver an optimal customer experience
- Increase workforce efficiency and productivity
- Decrease costs
- Improve business responsiveness and agility to meet changing business goals

Is intelligent printing right for you? Ask your Pacific Office Automation representative for a complete list of features and benefits to maximize your business value.
